

provincial ACCOUNTING

Self-managed Superannuation is a means of saving for retirement. It allows you to control your investment strategy, while obtaining tax benefits. Provincial Accounting uses superannuation not only as a tax planning package but a vehicle for wealth creation in a tax advantaged area.

Looking to the future .

Provincial Accounting assists you with a personalised plan to establish a superannuation fund that will effectively allow you to reach your financial retirement goals.

Our depth of knowledge of both regulatory and wealth management issues enables us to provide practical advice on the most effective superannuation strategies and solutions for clients seeking to maximise wealth. We assist you to create strategies for current and future generations or tax-effective income streams during retirement.

Provincial Accounting is able to provide specialised advice and services including:

- Superannuation Strategies, compliance advice and consulting
- Advice on Employer obligations
- Establishment of Self Managed Superannuation Funds
- Maximising Contributions
- Retirement Planning
- Pension Administration
- Estate Planning
- Advice concerning Taxation Benefits
- Binding Death Benefit Nominations
- Taxation Provisions applying to Superannuation

Reaching your goals.

Contributions, Earnings and Eligible Termination Payments

- Structuring a person's estate plan to ensure maximum wealth is transferred from one generation to the next.
- Reviewing trust deeds to ensure members and trustee's are able to implement strategies to maximise the member's retirement benefits

We can provide employers with advice on superannuation guarantees, obligations, employment costs and tax effective remuneration planning.

Our expertise and experience in all compliance matters gives us the ability to assist fund trustees with any regulatory or compliance matter.

With its tax-effective benefits, superannuation is a key element of retirement planning. Self-managed superannuation funds are an appealing option for business owners and high income earners who want to control their superannuation assets.

Building your personal wealth for your future needs and enjoyment.